The Cash Grocery Proposition

Think of the immense amount of detail connected with a charge grocery account. There is the time it takes to make the original charge. The detail required to carry that charge from day to day. The time required to make out your statement each month. Compare that with a cash transaction. You get your goods, have them wrapped, your money is rung up in the cash register and you are gone and that's the last of that deal, except to count the cash for deposit in the bank. The bookkeeper is eliminated, the chance of failure to charge or the loss of an account. And the consumer always pays. Couple that cash transaction with the buying power of THE GRABATERIA Cash and Carry Grocery and any reasonable person can see why we sell for less.

Local News

Bring in your job printing.

H. Steinfeld has taken out a permit for a large chicken house at 901 Allegheny street.

The twenty-seventh hull slid gracefully down the ways at the local ship plant Wednesday. Surely some record.

Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Couch have returned from a most enjoyable four months' sojourn in Ohio and other eastern states.

Remember all art calendars and pictures on the table at half price tomorrow, Saturday, only. Do not fail to make your choice. Review office.

E. W. Wires and family of British Columbia arrived in St. Johns last week at the home of Mrs. Wires' sister, Mrs. W. A. Flynn. They have purchased a home at Beaverton, and will locate there.

Clinton E. Pond was run down by a motorcycle on Willamette boulevard last Friday while on his way to work. His leg was badly crushed as a result, and he will probably be laid up for some time.

A series of old fashioned dances are being inaugurated by the Knights and Ladies of Security, the first of which will take place tomorrow, Saturday, evening at the St. Johns rink. A jolly good time is promised.

J. R. Johnson, who has made a national reputation as a shipyard orator, has returned to this city, after speaking in and traversing twenty-three states. He says he enjoyed the trip, although there was plenty of hard work involved in it.

Madame Schumann-Heink, the famous vocalist, favored the local ship yard with some exquisite songs and a delightful little talk during the noon hour Thursday of last week. The visit was keenly appreciated and enjoyed by the 2000 ship workers and their families.

"Can War or Pestilence Kill a Man Before His Time Comes?" Will be discussed at the Methodist Church Sunday Morning. Special music to clinch the message. Epworth League topic: "Catching up with Columbus." 7:30 P.M. Everybody's Hour to harvest results of the day's sowing.

In renewing subscription to the Review, D. Tallman, a former well known citizen and ex-Councilman of St. Johns, takes occasion to state: "All well as usual. We are still trusting that we will be able to get back to God's country some time in the near future. The winter so far has been unusually mild." Mr. Tallman resides at Fairport, New York.

The G. A. R., Ladies' Relief Corps and Ladies' Circle will celebrate Washington and Lincoln's birthday on February 12th in the auditorium of the James John high school, beginning at 2 P. M. Patriotic speeches will be included in a fine program that is being prepared. C. E. Cline will make an address on Lincoln. Music will be furnished by the High School orchestra. This celebration promises to be a most interesting affair.

While attempting to board a moving St. Johns car at the Portsmouth station about 3:40 P. M. Monday, Gelmer Maxwell, 12 years of age, fell beneath the wheels and suffered a badly crushed foot. He was removed to the Good Samaritan hospital, where it was found that amputation of the foot may be necessary. The boy, who lived with his parents at 1716 Gloucester street, was on his way to the city, and ran to catch the car which had just started. His hand slipped as he grabbed the handhold. The car was quickly stopped and the injured boy carried to a nearby drug store and thence to the hospital.

Get it in the morning on the way to work—those RUBBER SHOES and real warm socks.—W. W. Rogers, T. R. M.

Card of Thanks—We desire to thank the kind friends and neighbors and also the ladies of the Shipyard for their kindness to us during our recent trouble.—Henry Wickwire, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Wickwire.

The Knights and Ladies of Security are arranging for a smoker, definite announcement of which date will be made later. Chairman of program committee Corcoran says it will be something well worth while.

We want every man from St. Johns who has worn or is wearing a uniform to be listed in our Service Record at the Library. Won't you bring in that record with his picture?—Ethel F. Bowers, Librarian.

A Toronto soldier in Palestine recently announced the receipt of a parcel of figs sent from home. Only difficulties in the way of safe transportation kept him from shipping back a basket of potatoes as a souvenir.—Toronto Mail and Empire.

A young man and woman boarded an "owl" car at 1:30 a. m., which was crowded with shipworkers coming off the night shifts. "Do you think a lady wants to sit down by you in your working clothes?" asked she, with much of an air. "Sure not," retorted the shipworker, good humoredly. "All the ladies are at home abed at this hour of the night."—Dean Collins.

An officer on board a warship was drilling his men. "I want every man to lie on his back, put his legs in the air, and move them as if he were riding a bicycle," he explained. "Now commence." After a short effort one of the men stopped. "Why have you stopped Murphy?" asked the officer. "If ye please, Sir," was the answer, "O'm coasting!"—Pittsburgh Chronicle Telegraph.

On Thursday night, Jan. 16th, St. Johns Camp No. 7546, Modern Woodmen of America, gave its first smoker of the season. There were six good bouts hotly contested, and by the number of black advertising signs over the left eye of some of the boys, is evidence of the statement. There was a good sized crowd of fans in attendance. This was only the first of a series of bouts that will be put on by the M. W. of A. this season.—Reported.

Emil Schacht, architect, Commonwealth Bldg., is preparing plans and specifications for two buildings to be built for the United Artisans in Columbia Park. The buildings will be occupied as a home for aged. The main building will be a frame structure two stories high 60x100 feet in dimensions. It will contain approximately 40 rooms, together with lounging rooms, libraries, etc. A hot water heating plant will be installed. A second building will be constructed, which will be of brick construction 38x58 feet in dimensions, one story high. It will be used for the servants' quarters kitchen. The cost of the building is estimated to be $40,000, and it is planned to have plans ready in 30 days.—Abstract.

What Is Rediscounting?

THE most important privilege obtained by our membership in the Federal Reserve System is that of rediscounting. This means that when necessary, we can take our customers' notes and drafts which we hold to the Federal Reserve Bank and obtain cash in exchange. In this way a large proportion of our assets are just as available as though actually carried in cash.
